Athletic Director's Report

Tim Failor not present

No girls' softball this year – not enough interest

Jr. High A.D. explained that we will have a Spartan Shootout here instead of us paying to go to a shootout

Volleyball one may be in the works

Tomorrow is the jr. high winter sports recognition –Should boosters is paying for a light dessert bar/punch Audrey made a motion to pass, Pat seconded and everyone voted yes

Concession Report :

Spartan Field concession manager will be Tricia Putt – everyone said yay

Meeting Minutes (from February) Ann Tomchak made a motion to pass, Pat seconded, everyone voted yes

OLD BUSINESS:

Night at the Races – ongoing planning hour prior to meeting

NEW BUSINESS:

- News Journal All Star North/South
Joe Rall is participating – Should Boosters pay for an ad?
Ann made a motion to do it—Pat seconded it – everyone voted yes
- Popcorn – Carla wanted to know if we should let school have access to it—Audrey said we have to keep a clear division between boosters and school and who pays for it if it breaks.?If Carla wants to pop it and school pays for popcorn, then no problem. We need a new kettle portion of popcorn maker at Spartan Field – old one broke—we will table discussion until next meeting - we will relocate this one for now.

- Super Boosters Signage Jen from Pinnacle wanted to know if their sign could be updated. The company paid for the creation/installation in exchange for 5 or 6 year contract – it has been longer than that. We discussed removing all signs except for Adena and start a new Super Booster sign drive. Ann made a motion we table it and Pat seconded it – everyone voted yes
- April 25th is the Seminarians vs. 8th Grade Basketball game in FAC for fun
- Open House – Grade School – Chris Winters
High School – Audrey Ralph
- Carla brought up potential fundraiser – Cell FX
- 8% goes to Bennie 32% of Sales would go to Boosters
That got tabled until someone has enough time to investigate more
- Concession Area at the FAC – Carla thinks we should have a “wall of honor” with plaques similar to the one we have hanging to honor Jeanine – starting with Dwayne, and Terri/John Heringhaus
Ann made a motion to accept – Pat seconded it – resounding agreement

Next Meeting – April 9, 2014
